A Turn of Light was quite the treat. Weighing in at over 800 pages you have to know you are in for a very well developed story and characters. The past few years I have been shying away from quite a number of books over 600 pages because I think I've become a bit of an impatient reader.

review 1: This moves the story forward without hitting the "middle book of the trilogy" trap, where everything gets worse and the book isn't any fun. Picking this up after a year, I hit a "silly words SF" speedbump until I resynced with all the people, races, and plants in this world.
