Emma in Love by Emma Tennant Goodreads

After reading Emma in Love I think I'll give Tennant another try. Even though the reader encounters the well known character's from Austen's Emma, there is a change in their description. They feel and act differently, Tennant tried to make them more up-to-date (doubts about their happiness and well being, non-Austen deviances,) and I think she partly succeeded.

Told in Austen's inventive third person narrative style, EMMA IN LOVE reunites us with many of the Highbury characters we adore, but that is where any similarity to Austen's tale ends. Heavy on exposition and light on dialogue, the story begins well enough with a curious setup and conflicts, but soon lacks a balance of show and tell and logic.
