The Canadian Modernists Meet on JSTOR

The Canadian Modernists Meet is a collection of new critical essays on major and rediscovered Canadian writers of the early to mid-twentieth century. F.R. Scott's well-known poem 'The Canadian Authors Meet' sets the theme for the volume: a revisiting of English Canada's formative movements in modernist poetry, fiction, and drama. As did Scott's poem, Dean Irvine's collection raises questions - about modernism and antimodernism, nationalism and antinationalism, gender and class, originality

Reviews Marginal Notes The Canadian Modernists Meet

In reading The Canadian Modernists Meet I was struck by parallels with the recent controversies surrounding the expansion of the Museum of Modern Art in New York, perhaps the single most important institutional standard bearer for the modern in the twentieth century.
